PROCEDURE

Staff Performance Dispute Procedure

The following is the procedure to deal with a staff performance dispute not involving misconduct. Misconduct is an action by staff that results in instant dismissal. (see definition below).

Verbal Warning

The employee is told as soon as possible of any complaint concerning the performance of their work and is provided with an opportunity to discuss the complaint.

The Manager, in consultation with the employee, outlines how the employee must improve their performance. Any assistance needed by the employee to improve their performance is identified and provided; wherever possible.

A date to review the employee's performance is set, while considering to provide adequate time for the person to resolve the issue and risk to the organisation.

First Written Warning

If the employee's performance is still unsatisfactory at the time of the review, there is further discussion with the employee. This will include the employee, a representative of their choice (optional) and the Manager.

The complaint against the employee and plans for improvement are put in writing and a copy given to the employee, clearly stating that a lack of improvement by a given date will result in a final written warning.

Final Written Warning

If, at the date set, the employee's performance has not improved, there is further discussion with the employee. This includes the employee, a representative of their choice and the Manager.

The complaint against the employee and plans for improvement are recorded in writing and a copy is given to the employee clearly stating that a lack of improvement by a given date will result in termination.

Termination of Employment

- If the problem persists after the date set in the final written warning, the employee's employment may be terminated.
- The termination must be approved by the Manager.
- If the termination is not approved, an alternative process for managing the performance issue is developed.

This process is uncontrolled when printed. The current version of this document is available at the above location

Detailed notes of performance dispute management are recorded and kept in the individual employee's personnel file.

Staff Grievance Procedure

If an employee has a grievance related to their employment or concerning another staff person, the following process applies:

Discussion

The employee may approach the Manager for discussion and advice on the issue. The discussion is confidential. The employee may put the issue in writing to a senior staff member and request that the issue be raised.

A decision on the issue and discussion with the employee, will occur within seven business days.

If the employee considers that the discussion has not addressed their concerns adequately, they may seek external advice. This may be with their union representative or another independent body.

Misconduct

Misconduct includes very serious breaches of our policies and procedures or unacceptable behaviour that warrants the dismissal of an employee. Examples of misconduct include:

- Theft of property or funds from our organisation.
- Wilful damage of property belonging to our organisation.
- Intoxication through alcohol or other substances during working hours.
- Verbal or physical harassment or discrimination of any other employee or participant.
- The disclosure of confidential information regarding the organisation to any other party without prior permission.

- Carrying on a private business from our premises or using the organisation’s resources for private business without the permission.
- Falsification of any records belonging to the organisation.
- Failure to comply with the Code of Conduct.

Seek Advice

- The Manager must be informed immediately following receipt of an allegation of misconduct.
- If necessary, the Manager will obtain external professional advice.
- Staff should consider seeking advice from their union and / or another independent body.

Suspension of Duties

The employee is told as soon as possible of any allegation of misconduct. The employee may be suspended with full pay pending an investigation of the allegation.

A letter outlining the time, date and alleged misconduct is given to them.

Leave

-Application for Leave

Any employee taking leave must complete an "Application for Leave" Form. If the application form is not completed, payment will not be made for leave taken.

The application must be completed and approved before annual leave, long service leave, or if unpaid leave is taken.

-Sick Leave

- A doctor’s certificate is required for sick leave of more than two consecutive days.
